DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 9/18/2008 have been fully considered. Regarding claims 1,7-13,17,18, see ¶2.

Applicant argues Gardella does not disclose the first and second hollow tubes being spaced from the conveyor medium. In response, the Examiner notes the claim does not recite in which direction the hollow tubes are spaced from the conveyor medium. Gardella discloses at least a vertical spacing between the hollow tubes and the conveyor medium.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1,7-13,17,18 allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gardella USP 3,599,769 in view of Agnoff USP 6,419,070 and Hill USP 6,443,295.

Gardella discloses a method of inhibiting contact with a rotatable conveyor roller (2) driving a conveyor medium (13), the method comprising placing said motorized rotatable conveyor roller having a diameter and two opposite ends between a pair of opposed generally cylindrical non-rotatable hollow tubes (4) extending axially and exteriorly from said rotatable roller (fig.1), and causing said rotatable conveyor roller to rotate such that, with said rotatable conveyor roller contacting the conveyor medium (fig.2,5), said rotatable conveyor roller drives the conveyor medium, said first and second hollow tubes being spaced from said conveyor medium (in at least a vertical direction. The hollow tubes do not contact the conveyor medium), yet configured to inhibit contact with said rotatable conveyor roller (hollow tubes 4 inhibit contact at least laterally), but does not expressly disclose the diameter of the hollow tubes substantially the same as said diameter of said rotatable conveyor roller or the rotatable conveyor roller being motorized.

Agnoff teaches the diameter of the hollow tubes (40) substantially the same as a diameter of said rotatable conveyor roller for the purpose of adequately protecting the bearings from dirt and debris (C3/L52-55).

At the time of invention it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have the hollow tubes be a diameter substantially the same as a diameter of the rotatable conveyor roller, as taught by Agnoff, in the method of Gardella, for the purpose of adequately protecting the bearings from dirt and debris.

Hill teaches the rotatable conveyor roller being motorized for the purpose of easily controlling individual rollers.

At the time of invention it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to motorize the rotatable conveyor roller, as taught by Hill, in the method of Gardella, for the purpose of easily controlling individual rollers.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
